

James P. Quinn

ASSOCIATE

James Quinn concentrates his practice in the area of commercial litigation. Prior to joining Eckert Seamans, James served as an Assistant District Attorney in Philadelphia, where he managed an extensive caseload including all hearings, motions, pleas, and waiver and jury trials.

While in law school, James earned a certificate in Trial Advocacy & Litigation and participated in internships at the Montgomery County Public Defender's Office and Philadelphia District Attorney's Office – Appellate Unit. He also gained rewarding experience volunteering for the Wills for Heroes program, which provides free basic estate planning for first responders and military veterans.
