

GAMING LAW ALERT

TABLE GAMES APPROVED IN PENNSYLVANIA

Eckert Seamans Can Help You Hit the Ground Running

With the legalization of table games in Pennsylvania, an entire new market has been opened for table game manufacturers and providers of associated equipment. The experienced gaming attorneys of Eckert Seamans can help your business get through the regulatory process quickly and get you to market.

Under the new legislation, manufacturing licenses are now available by submitting an application to the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board. Eckert Seamans attorneys can assist your business to:

- Navigate the regulatory hurdles and securing a license from the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board is one of the most rigorous gaming regulatory bodies in the country;
- Determine whether your business is eligible for qualification under the less burdensome gaming service provider provisions;
- Assess whether your business qualifies for the new law's abbreviated licensing process for manufacturers already licensed to in relation to slot machines in Pennsylvania;
- Evaluate the potential for reductions in licensure fees;
- Short circuit the product testing and certification process for out-of-state manufacturers to enable you to more quickly get your product to customers; and
- Have your voice heard on the temporary regulations that the Gaming Control Board will enact that will impact your business for at least the first two years of table gaming in Pennsylvania.

The time is now for table games in Pennsylvania. With table games legalized, all of the licensed casinos will be working to get their operations up and running as quickly as possible. Manufacturers can get in on the ground floor of the table game business in Pennsylvania. The experienced gaming attorneys of Eckert Seamans can assist you in working through the regulations and getting you to market as soon as possible.
