David O. Twaddell

MEMBER

David Twaddell serves a wide range of public and private clients with their financing needs. Since 1981, acting as bond counsel, bank counsel, underwriters' counsel, and special project counsel, he has managed public offerings and private placement of bonds and notes, bank loans, industrial and commercial development projects, and state and federal grants and loans. His experience includes issuance of tax exempt and taxable general obligation bonds and notes and revenue based financing for the Commonwealth and its agencies and for municipalities, authorities, school districts, hospitals, colleges, retirement communities, and other nonprofit organizations, as well as for private manufacturing businesses. In addition to providing traditional finance structures, David has assisted clients in the development of innovative programs including bond pools, non-debt lease financing, and variable rate tender bonds and public private partnerships.

He is a past president of the Pennsylvania Association of Bond Lawyers and served as a panelist for its seminars on federal tax and securities matters. He is currently a member of the General Law Committee of the National Association of Bond Lawyers and has served as a panelist for its municipal derivative products committee on interest rate swaps. He was retained by Pennsylvania House Appropriations Committee as an instructor to its staff on municipal bond issuance and assessing the fiscal consequences of proposed legislation. He served as member of a committee of bond lawyers advising the Pennsylvania Legislative Reference Bureau on amendments to the Municipality Authorities Law. Recently, he has represented Pennsylvania bond lawyers in testifying before the Pennsylvania Senate on proposed amendments to the Local Government Unit Debt Act then going on to work with the Senate staff to modify the amendments.
