SPECIAL COUNSEL

Erin King Sweeney has over 20 years of experience focused on aviation, transportation, and security matters. She previously served as General Counsel, USA, for Swiss International Air Lines Ltd., and handled the dual bankruptcies of Swissair and Sabena, and managed the start-up of SWISS in the United States. She has broad experience with the Department of Transportation, Federal Aviation Administration, Transportation Security Administration, and U.S. Customs and Border Protection.

For five years, Erin served as an elected Councilwoman in the Town of Hempstead, New York, and was selected as majority leader. Erin's work focused on downtown development and transit-oriented growth. She also served as president of King Sweeney Strategies LLC, advising clients on business strategy in the transportation and security sectors.

At Eckert Seamans, Erin provides strategic counsel to clients on their most pressing and complex legal, administrative, and regulatory issues.
