Jill K. Hauff

MEMBER

Jill Hauff is a dynamic, purpose-driven attorney with a wealth of experience as a litigator and corporate counselor representing both public and private companies across diverse industries.

Her business and commercial litigation experience includes handling disputes involving breach of contract, business-to-business tort claims, intellectual property, consumer protection, real estate and creditors' rights in bankruptcy. Jill approaches her engagements with a practical, business-oriented mindset, focusing on early case assessment and overall strategic planning. She works closely with clients to develop tailored strategies that align with business objectives, while being mindful of the financial impact and operational disruption of litigation. Jill has obtained favorable judgments in State and Federal Courts and has successfully tried cases to both judge and jury.

As outside counsel, Jill is a trusted advisor to clients facing complex matters. She advises companies on drafting and negotiating commercial contracts, safeguarding intellectual property rights through strategic measures such as trademarks, copyrights and licensing agreements, and handing their day-to-day legal challenges. Jill additionally counsels her clients in various commercial lending transactions, including real estate acquisition and construction, asset-based, commercial and industrial loans, and leasing. She combines her deep legal knowledge with a keen understanding of her clients' business objectives. By delivering solutions-orientated strategies and risk management guidance, Jill effectively bridges the gap between legal complexities and business realities, while achieving tangible results for clients.
