Sabrine L. Tribié

ASSOCIATE

Sabrine L. Tribié represents corporate and individual clients in commercial litigation and civil disputes in federal and state courts, including breach of contract, business torts, and securities litigation. Sabrine has significant experience developing litigation strategies, managing e-discovery, and handling motion practice in high-stakes cases.

Before joining Eckert Seamans, Sabrine served as a litigation associate at two separate law firms in New York, where she represented clients in complex commercial litigation, breach of contract, fraud, product liability, securities litigation and enforcement, ex parte foreign discovery, and other civil litigation matters. She also completed two secondments with JPMorgan Chase & Co., during which she advised the Consumer Banking departments on high-stakes legal issues related to third-party subpoenas for financial records, asset-based court orders, and seizure warrants, and prepared Chase employees subpoenaed in court proceedings to authenticate financial records and provide factual testimony.
