Zachary J. Conjeski

MEMBER

Zachary (Zac) Conjeski advises clients on a wide range of tax and transactional matters. His practice encompasses federal, state, and local tax issues, corporate transactions, mergers and acquisitions, nonprofit organizations, and income tax issues with respect to estate planning for high-net-worth individuals and families.

Zac works closely with clients to develop strategic, tax-efficient solutions that align with their business objectives and personal goals. He counsels businesses, owners, and individuals on complex tax matters arising in transactional and estate planning contexts, helping them navigate regulatory requirements while maximizing planning opportunities.

In addition to his tax practice, Zac advises clients on business formation, corporate governance, mergers and acquisitions, and the structuring and operation of S corporations and limited liability companies. He also represents tax-exempt and nonprofit organizations, assisting both established entities and organizations seeking tax-exempt status with governance, compliance, and operational matters.
