Michael R. Borasky

OF COUNSEL

Mike Borasky represents large and smaller business clients in complex commercial litigation, handling lawsuits throughout the country. He has extensive experience in antitrust, products liability/mass tort, class action, commercial contract, distributorship, insurance coverage, environmental, and other areas of business litigation. Mike frequently counsels clients in non-litigation matters, particularly regarding products liability and antitrust matters, including developing and presenting programs to improve clients compliance in those areas of law.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

ANTITRUST

- Has more than 40 years of antitrust litigation experience, representing businesses across various industries in single-plaintiff and class-action cases, including defense of alleged price-fixing, monopolization, price discrimination, and other claims involving paper products, natural gas transmission, and metals industries.
- Counseling on all aspects of compliance with the United States antitrust laws, including issues relating to pricing, distribution, mergers and acquisitions, and compliance with the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act, and development and implementation of antitrust compliance programs for clients in various industries, including food products, electronic products, metals, airlines, and oil and gas industries.
- Representing clients in connection with antitrust investigations conducted by the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission.

OTHER LITIGATION, DISPUTE RESOLUTION & COUNSELING EXPERIENCE

- Lead attorney for a chemical manufacturer in the defense of numerous toxic tort cases throughout the country involving its principal line of industrial chemicals.
- Prosecution and defense of insurance coverage claims involving liability and life insurance policies, including coverage for environmental damage and toxic tort claims.
- Defense of pharmaceutical and agricultural chemical product liability claims.

- Prosecution and defense of breach-of-contract and other business dispute claims.
- Defense of environmental contamination and other class-action litigation.
