Robert V. Campedel

MEMBER

Bob Campedel focuses his practice on all aspects of complex commercial litigation, including commercial disputes, contract disputes, non-compete cases, intellectual property litigation, insurance coverage, construction, engineering, and securities litigation. Bob's securities experience includes five years as Attorney-in-Charge of Enforcement for the PA Securities Commission, during which time he was involved with issuers and broker dealer regulations. He worked in cooperation with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA formerly NASD), and other state securities regulators with regard to varied securities law issues.

Bob has litigated and tried cases in jury and non-jury trials in federal court in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Delaware, and Michigan. He has represented clients on appeals to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, Superior Court of Pennsylvania, and the Third, Sixth and Seventh Circuits of the United States Court of Appeals. Bob has also represented clients in many alternate dispute resolution matters, including major AAA arbitration cases and several mediation tribunals.
