Zachary M. Wallack

MEMBER

Zachary Wallack has significant experience in all phases of complex litigation. He is an experienced litigator and trial attorney who represents corporate and individual clients in state and federal trial and appellate courts, administrative proceedings, and at arbitration and mediation. Zach also counsels businesses involved in government investigations, including those conducted by the U.S. Department of Labor, Wage and Hour Division (WHD), the Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination (MCAD), and the Massachusetts Department of Early Education and Care (DEEC).

Zach also has significant experience with construction litigation, representing general contractors, subcontractors and property owners, and others in contract disputes, construction defect cases and premises liability matters. In addition to his commercial litigation and construction litigation practice, Zach represents commercial landlords in disputes concerning lease and license agreements, rent issues, tax abatements, use clauses, abandonments, options, and indemnification disputes.

Zach is also a member of the Gaming Group. He has extensive experience assisting clients with license applications before regulatory bodies, contested enforcement matters, rulemaking proceedings, and regulatory review.

Zach also teaches trial advocacy to lawyers on behalf of the National Institute of Trial Advocacy ("NITA") at NITA's Boston Trial Program.

Prior to entering private practice, Zach was an Assistant District Attorney in the Suffolk County District Attorney's office. There, he served as the Chief of the Gun Prosecution Task Force, a specialized unit focused on prosecuting individuals charged with illegal firearm possession and tried more than fifty jury trials to verdict.
