Carolyn Boucek

ASSOCIATE

Carolyn Boucek is a litigator, concentrating her practice in the areas of Labor & Employment and Commercial Litigation.

She helps employers and business entities prevent and address litigation related to allegations of employment discrimination and compliance with federal and state employment laws and regulations. In her commercial litigation practice, she helps businesses develop and implement strategies to succeed in litigation surrounding supply-chain integrity, vendor disputes, corporate governance, and contract breakdown. She has experience drafting crucial case documents, such as pleadings, discovery materials, has conducted extensive motions practice.

While in law school, Carolyn was a co-recipient of the CALI Excellence for the Future Awards in International Criminal Law and Constitution Law of the European Union. She also worked as a Research Associate at the Avon Global Center for Women & Justice (now known as the Cornell Center for women, Justice, Economy, & Technology).

Carolyn recently served as a Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Christy Criswell Wiegand of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania.
