Jessica A. Glajch

MEMBER

Jessica Glajch focuses her practice on complex commercial litigation, including financial services, product liability, aviation, employment, insurance coverage, and commercial landlord-tenant disputes. She has extensive experience handling matters in numerous state and federal courts. She has advised and represented clients through all stages of litigation, including pre-suit evaluation, discovery disputes, dispositive motions, and trial. She has also advised clients on regulatory and corporate compliance matters.

Jessica has experience defending healthcare providers in medical malpractice litigation. She has defended physician practice groups, nurse practitioners, and physicians from various specialties, including surgery, anesthesiology, and internal medicine. She has experience handling these types of cases at both the trial and appellate level.

Prior to joining Eckert Seamans, she served two years as an out-of-chambers clerk with the 11th Circuit Court of Appeals, where she assisted the Court in resolving civil and criminal cases.
